>A gun was aimed at a target, this target? Captain Steve Rodgers, Captain America. Spider-Man looked, he had a job to do, 'Come on, Spidey.. Take a Move!' he jumped up and swung to get Captain America out of the way, but he was shot in the side as a sacrifice and he fell on the machine in front, CA ran after the shooter. Spidey tried to get up, but he fell. "Come on.." Spidey tried again, but he could only stay on his knee, "Come on, Genetically Altered Spider that bit me.. You turned me into Spider-Man.." he coughed a bit.

"Also ruined my life.."

Spidey stood, "At least give me the strength to get out of this.. and get to a hospital.." he began to walk, but he fell, "Ok.." he began webbing the gunshot hole.

"That should keep my insides.. Well, inside."

Spidey then looked up, seeing the Sinister 6 flying toward New York. "Oh no.." He began to swing after them, though he couldn't keep up from the gunshot and the hole in his side slowed him down.

Spidey then decided to take a quicker way, he swung to New York and jumped through Rooftops, still couldn't keep up, somehow they didn't see him. "Come on, Spidey.. Go faster!" Spidey then jumped and swung and landed behind his neighbor, Allan Thomas' house. Spidey looked to see the Sinister 6 at his house.

>"Peter Parker, where is he?" Norman Osborn questioned, "I don't know pal, now can you and your trick or treating friends move along?" Johnny Storm said, Osborn wasn't very happy.

"Bring him to me.. Now." Osborn was beginning to become the Goblin.

"I'll just give you something else.. FLAME ON!" Johnny's body was then engulfed in flames, Human Torch then began to fly through the enemies.

"Hang on, Pal!" Ice Man not far behind. "Damn it, Osborn! You brought us to Human Torch and Ice Man!" Vulture said, he then flapped his wings to bring them closed together, melting Ice Man's Ice Armor and freezing Human Torch's Flame Embodiment.

Before they could finish them, Lizard was thrown straight into the air and toward the moon. "Huff Huff Hey.. Huff Huff.." Spidey stood, unmasked from unable to breathe much from the running. Allan came out, a 14 year old boy and he watched for a little while, until he felt a stinging in his arm. "OW!" He looked to see a strange red striped spider.

Peter jumped and dodged a few attacks, but he couldn't make much else, then Sandman caught his weak spot and slammed him into the ground. "AH!" Peter could only scream.

Allan then ran to Peter's House, just barely avoiding waking the knocked out Goblin.

>Allan was in Peter's Room looking for a suit, "You've got over 30 suits in here, gotta be one that~" he found one that seemed fitting, it was red and it seemed to have a red vest that had a rest spider symbol on the center, while the gloves had Black on the palms and bottoms of the fingers, and on the bottom of the boots. "This'll do." He put it on and when he put the mask on, everything was Night

Visioned out.

[System] Welcome, Allan Thomas, you are now in the Archid Project Suit, as destiny has said, you have come for the suit after being bit by a genetically altered Spider.

Allan smiled under the suit, "Archid huh? I'll keep the name." he said.

[System] Web shooters activating.

Archid opened the window and jumped, then he saw Sandman attacking Peter, "Umm.. Villain Scan?" he guessed a command. He then could feel the suit scanning Sandman, making the sandy villain turn.

[System] Sandman, Flint Marco. A former simple criminal, now has the ability to manipulate Sand, weaknesses include fire and water, and all liquid substances. Fire Webs activating.

Archid fired a web and a flame from the top of the Web Shooter lit the Web and it burned Sandman. Sandman lost his sandy form and reverted to Flint, who fell. Electro then landed and looked toward Archid, "_You are?_"

"Archid, the one who's telling you now if you don't want to die, back away from Parker." He glared, now Electro felt different, "_PUNK! YOU'LL GO DOWN!_" Electro flew toward Archid, but he jumped and Electro hit the wall and he fired a water web, which shocked Electro until his form was cancelled out. Archid could notice Mary Jane Watson coming to Peter, who was shocked, "What are you doing here?" he asked, "To see you!" MJ said.

Archid then kicked Lizard back and looked at the surrounding enemies. "Wait.. Archid?" Peter turned to see Archid fighting, "The only one to fight like that is.." Peter and MJ both figured it out.

"Allan!" They both shouted, "You've gotta get the HELL out of here!" Peter threw MJ and make sure she was caught by a web net.

"I'm coming pal!" Peter began to swing, but failed to make it due to the gunshot. Archid then noticed his hand, his eyes glew brightly and a light flew out and shot Electro, who had quickly recovered, absorbing the electrics on him and taking his power.

What just happened?

Was all Archid said in his mind, he then tried it, he shot Electro Webs then, he touched Vulture's wing and an explosion flung him back. "Now the last of the 6.." Archid turned to Goblin, who was awake, but Rhino charged, "YOU ALL FORGOT ABOUT ME!" Archid was jammed by the silver armored muscular man's arms and flung into a wall. "Ah.." Archid tried to get up, but he felt like it was over, until a web caught Rhino's back and swung him back. Peter stood, that's when Goblin stood and flew toward him, Archid shot two Elec Webs at his wings and tried to pull the Goblin back.

Peter then used his strength to kick the Goblin into the air and that was his all. Peter fell, Archid looking toward the Goblin, trying to make sure he wouldn't get up, but he did. "Come on, Osborn, you kill me, then WHAT?! The son that you killed won't MAGICALLY come back to life.. Your hair.. Won't MAGICALLY go back into fashion.." Peter asked, "You'll be dead.." Goblin said, "Oh,, There's that." Peter stood as best he could. "HAHAHAHAHA!" Goblin laughed, "Well.. Since people are trying to sleep.. Could you at least do it.. QUIETLY?!" Peter slammed a truck on top of Goblin and crushed him.. Was it over? Archid looked under the truck and saw a hole, he'd meet him again.

Archid then turned, he was worried much more than before. "PETE! STAY WITH ME!" Archid shook Peter, Peter pulling off the mask, "Pal.. It's ok.." Peter was looking at him with a smile.

Allan began to cry, "It isn't, man!" he looked at Peter and he was beginning to cry, "It is.. Because I know MY friend, someone who I CAN trust will be protecting the people.." Allan sniffed. His Spider Sense then went off, he put his mask back on, "Go on.. Pal." Peter's hand dropped. Archid swung through the streets.
